MESSY ARTS & CRAFTS

Neighborhood Picnic

Sunday, March 19, 11:30 am

Join us for a fun-filled picnic lunch with messy arts and crafts for all ages. Get your hands dirty with finger paint, stamp a postcard, smash a paint-filled egg, and make memories together. Invite your family, neighbors, and friends to make a mess! Every child who participates will receive a free t-shirt to paint and all are invited to enjoy our free picnic lunch. Remember to wear clothes that you don't mind getting dirty (but you only have to get messy if you want to)! Craft items such as blankets, scarves, and bags made by hand by our Tuesday Morning Ladies group will be available for sale along with crafty items from our Book & Gift Shop.

Seeing With the Eyes of Your Heart

Wisdom that Illuminates the Way

ONE-DAY RETREAT – SAT., MARCH 25, 2017

Fr. William Meninger, O.C.S.O.

In this one-day retreat, Fr. Meninger shares stories from many spiritual traditions that as one draws closer to God, they bring love for the entire world. Love shares itself. Each story offers us hope that a life of faith and prayer can expand our experience and understanding of our own divinity, and the divinity of all.

Visit www.saintbarnabas.org/meninger2017 for details and registration.

*May you be happy,
May you be free,
May you be loving,
May you be loved.*

—FR. WILLIAM MENINGER

Ash Wednesday | MARCH 1

Ash Wednesday begins the six-week season of Lent. During these services, we are reminded, by way of a cross of ashes being marked on our foreheads, that we are dust and to dust we shall return. This reminder of our mortality sets us on the path through this subdued season during which we take a close look at who we are and who God is calling us to be.

- 7 am Traditional liturgy with ashes and communion in the Chapel
- 12 pm Traditional liturgy with ashes, communion, and music in the Sanctuary
- 6 pm Family-friendly liturgy, ashes, Children's Choir in the Music Center
- 6:30 pm Family dinner open to all in Hutton Hall
- 7 pm Traditional liturgy with ashes, communion, and music in the Sanctuary

Our Yearly Celebration brought us an inspirational message from our Rector, Jim Clark, followed by an important call to action from our Senior Warden, David Getts. We invite you to view both at www.saintbarnabas.org (select "Continuing Our Legacy" in the middle of the home page) and then discern how you can assist Saint Barnabas in continuing the ministry of Making Disciples during 2017 and beyond!

Lenten Program: Salvation, Mercy, and the Cross

WEDNESDAYS | MAR. 8, 15, 22, 29, APRIL 5, 5:45 PM

Join us during Lent for another marvelous exploration of how art helps us access our faith. Each week, we will meet together for dinner at 5:45pm, followed by a program where we will hear from artists in our parish who have artistically represented one of the Gospel passages assigned for Lent. We will enfold these artist conversations in prayers, and, from time to time, include a brief musical meditation as well. This unique, prayerful offering promises incredible depths as we journey through this solemn season through the eyes of our faithful fellow parishioners. You won't want to miss it. All are welcome. Childcare/children's program available.

March Quiet Day

SATURDAY, MAR. 11, 9:30 AM – 1 PM
SANCTUARY

The Rev. Jim Clark leads the day, which includes teaching, quiet solitary time, and sessions of communal silent prayer in the Sanctuary. Participants are welcome to the Sanctuary, to quiet areas for reading or journaling, or to walk our beautiful campus. Come to Quiet Day for an introduction to what the Contemplative Life at Saint Barnabas might offer you, or to sustain you in that life. Please bring your Bible. All are welcome.

SAGES

THURSDAY, MAR. 16,
11:30 AM | HUTTON HALL

In honor of St. Patrick's Day, favorite Irish songs and stories are "on tap" for our March 16 SAGES program featuring vocalist Lynn Edwards, humorist Bob Edwards, and pianist Dee Winberry performing Love and a Little Blarney. Don't miss the fun! $5.

The Episcopal Way

THURSDAYS, MAR. 23–MAY 4, 7:15 PM | ST. PAUL'S ROOM / LEARNING CENTER
(No meeting April 6, Maundy Thursday)

Join Father Jim Clark for an adventurous journey into The Episcopal Way... of following Jesus. This new series will be all about practice, practice, practice. We'll learn how our rich Episcopal heritage, dating all the way back to the first century, gives us tried and true wisdom for following Jesus. We'll explore our celebrated "Three Legged Stool"—Scripture, Tradition, and Reason—and learn to use our Book of Common Prayer as guidance. We'll also provide a framework for you to go deeply into why you are an Episcopalian and what it is about this particular way of following Jesus that keeps holding your soul and bringing you back. This series will also serve as adult preparation for Baptism and Confirmation or for being received into the Episcopal Church from another tradition. Contact Fr. Nick Roosevelt to RSVP or for more information.

Our Most Sincere Thank You!

At our Annual Meeting/Yearly Celebration on January 29, we celebrated some of our long-standing servants of Saint Barnabas. For those who weren't there, we offer you this chance to thank them too!

Tammy Underwood
*Bookstore Manager,
Since 1987*

Jim Rector
*Head of the Ushers,
Since 2003*

Peggy Iacobelli
*Head of the Memorial Acceptance
& Fine Arts Committee,
Since 2004*

Pam Bell
*Outgoing Altar
Guild Director,
2008-2016*

Thank you for your servant leadership of your parish family.

To learn how you too can serve at Saint Barnabas, contact
Rev. Nick at Nick@saintbarnabas.org.

Our New Communications Manager

Saint Barnabas is pleased to announce the addition of Amy DeCassin to our staff team in the position of Communications Manager. Amy and her husband, Cam, have been active members at Saint Barnabas for over a year, and we are excited to welcome her on board. Amy comes to Saint Barnabas from Scottsdale Public Art, where she has led numerous projects including Canal Convergence, an annual event with interactive artworks by local and international artists, hands-on activities, live music and performances. Amy also maintains her own impressive portfolio of works in her studio. She is looking forward to bringing her gifts and talents to serve Saint Barnabas.

Easter Flower Memorials
