COMING TO PEACE: MIND, BODY, & SPIRIT | SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22

A Day of Retreat, Reflection, Learning, & Fellowship at Saint Barnabas with
Br. Michael Gallagher, OSB | 8:15-8:45am Registration & Continental Breakfast
8:45am-4pm Program [note new start time], inc. lunch / 4-5pm Fellowship | $45.00, all inclusive.

“Come to peace and a thousand around you will be saved.”

- SAINT SERAPHIM, 18TH CENTURY RUSSIAN STARETZ

If we can be at peace within ourselves – mind, body, and spirit – we can begin to offer our best, whole selves in service to God and one another. This concept is at the heart of a program that will be hosted by our Saint Barnabas Community of Hope lay pastoral care ministry team and clergy advisor, Rev. Elizabeth Roles.

We will be joined for the day by Pamela Heidt, Community of Hope International (COHI) Regional Representative Coordinator, and Br. Michael Gallagher, a Benedictine monk and member of the COHI Board. The program’s featured presentation will be “Benedictine Balance: A Path to Peace,” offered by Br. Michael, co-founder of Holy Cross Monastery in Beaumont, Texas, a retreat leader, and a presenter on topics including spiritual direction, music, prayer, lectio divina, and Benedictine life and spirituality.

The day also will include three workshop sessions, “Mind,” “Body,” and “Spirit,” with three workshops within each focus area from which attendees may choose. Each workshop will highlight a different means of seeking and achieving personal peace.

“Coming to Peace: Mind, Body, & Spirit” will be the kick-off event for a period of “Coming to Peace” activities at Saint Barnabas, particularly for our contemplative groups and COH ministry, made possible in part by a generous grant received by Rev. Elizabeth and our congregation through the Lilly Endowment Clergy Renewal Programs. Saint Barnabas is very proud of Rev. Elizabeth and her “Coming to Peace” grant for pastor and parish, one of only 150 such grants awarded last year. For program information and registration, please visit our church website:

(Scholarships to offset the cost of attendance are available. Contact Rev. Elizabeth Roles at church office, (480) 948-5560.)

EPISCOPAL WAY - NEW TO THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH?

BEGINS THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 2020, 7:15-8:30PM LEARNING CENTER

Join The Rev. Jim Clark for an adventurous journey into The Episcopal Way...of following Jesus. We'll learn how our rich Episcopal heritage, dating all the way back to the first century, gives us tried and true wisdom for following Jesus. We'll explore how our celebrated "Three-Legged Stool" of Scripture, Tradition, and Reason gives us dynamic spaciousness for finding God and our own selves. We'll learn to use our Book of Common Prayer's guidance for prayer in virtually every situation we'll encounter. We'll also provide a framework for you to go deeply into why you are an Episcopalian and what it is about this particular way of following Jesus that keeps holding your soul and bringing you back.

THE ENNEAGRAM | WEDNESDAY EVENINGS, JANUARY 29 - MARCH 25, 2020 (NO MEETING ON ASH WEDNESDAY) 7:00 - 8:30PM IN THE SAINT BARNABAS CHAPEL

The Enneagram is a tool for personal and spiritual growth. Its wisdom reveals the lens through which different personality types experience and interpret life. This deepens self awareness, leading to compassion, understanding, and acceptance of oneself and others. The Enneagram has both religious and secular applications. Insight gained from studying it can profoundly transform lives and relationships.

This is a video series, featuring RICHARD ROHR, OFM, teaching the Enneagram from the Christian perspective. Fr. Rohr is a renowned contemporary spiritual teacher, a prolific author, and articulate speaker.

ALL ARE WELCOME

LIVING ENDING

PARENTS, SAVE THE DATE! | FEBRUARY 16, 11:45 AM, HUTTON HALL

On February 16, we will host an important conversation for all ages, but particularly for those parenting younger children. Children, Death, & Loss: How do we walk through hard times with our children? is an opportunity for parents to learn how to have tough conversations, grieve together with their children, and provide a ministry of presence to their children as they struggle with loss and death. All loss, particularly death, is huge and daunting to kids, and they will look to us to see how to best manage and embrace their feelings when those losses occur. The conversation will be led by people versed in children's psychological development and needs, and we can learn together how to help our children thrive even in the midst of pain. Lunch and childcare will be provided.

MENTAL HEALTH TASK FORCE

HOW TO COPE WITH TRAUMA | SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 11:45AM - 1PM | LIBRARY

In today's world, trauma seems to surround us, and we've had to cope with it both personally and vicariously. To help us understand trauma's impact and to give guidance in understanding and managing it, the Mental Health Task Force is offering a presentation by parishioner

Dr. Ellie Izzo, author of Second Hand Shock.

Dr. Izzo will explore trauma's effect on brain neurology and one's physical and mental health.

Please join us.

All are welcome!
